And decide for yourself. Here is one case of it.

"I had been annoyed by backache and kidney troubles for a long time," says Mrs. Joseph A. Woods, of Summer St., Norway. "I tried many remedies, but got no relief until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. Two boxes helped me in every way. I also wish to say that Doan's Kidney Pills cured my little son of kidney weakness and improved his health. You may continue publishing the statement I gave in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills some years ago."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Woods had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. 42-43

NORTH BRIDGTON.

Mrs. Abbie Chadbourne has gone to Waterford to care for Mrs. Kimball Kilgore, more familiarly known as "Aunt Betsey," who is very sick.

C. W. Hill, came near meeting with a serious accident, while on his way to North Waterford Fair with a four-horse team of people. While going up the long hill before reaching North Waterford the pole horses jumped pulling the pole from the carriage and also pulling Mr. Hill violently over the fender of the carriage, striking on a large rock, on his hip and side breaking a rib and otherwise bruising him. Those who witnessed the accident said he was very fortunate to escape with his life.

Leonard Pitts is piping his buildings for running water, and putting new roofing on his house.

Mrs. George Marr, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. K. Shedd, at North Waterford, has returned home.

Eugene Longley of the Highlands was at L. N. Howard's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hannaford of "Punkin Valley", Bridgton, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Green on Monday. They are very much pleased with their new home.

Work on the new Library has begun in earnest.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Barnard left town, Tuesday, for a two weeks' visit in Worcester, Mass., and vicinity. They were accompanied by their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Lakin of Fryeburg. They went in Mr. Lakin's auto.

Plenty of water in the big spring now and everybody is happy.

Henry Evans has been on a business trip to the Balsams, Dixville Notch, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Pitman Meserve, formerly of this village, but now of Bridgton, are rejoicing over the birth of a daughter, Jean Hudson.

Clarence Devitt is suffering with a sprained ankle. He has been working for Seth Jewett on the new library building.

Stephen Pembroke and family have moved to the village in Seth Moore's house. Mr. Moore boards with them.

Mrs. Herbert Doble of Milo has been the guest of her sister, Kate Cushman. She returned home Friday.

Owing to the scarcity of water, Samuel Ridlon has installed a large gasoline engine in his mill for the purpose of making cider and running some of his machinery.

Mrs. Hazel Whitney's baby Charlotte was taken suddenly ill with convulsions Thursday morning, having six inside of four hours. A physician was called. At present she is very much improved.

Stephen Pembroke is slowly recovering from his recent illness with a large carbuncle on the back of his neck, but is not able to do any work yet.

Mrs. Mary Walker of Brownfield is visiting her nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Elton York.

Gladys Allen picked dandelions, buttercups and blueberry blossoms, Oct. 12.

Elmer Brooks has finished work at George Kimball's and has hired out with Geo. Hill of South Waterford. Roland Howard takes his place at George Kimball's.

A large number from this place attended the World's Fair at North Waterford, Saturday, Oct. 10.

Carrie Smith of Jamaica Plain, Mass., has been in town the past week closing up her house for the winter. She returned home Friday morning accompanied by Emma Wentworth, who will work for Miss Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Thompson of Cornish were recent guests at Walter Chadbourne's.

WEST FRYEBURG.

Mrs. S. M. Wakefield of Stockton, Cal., who has spent the summer with her sister, Mrs. Farrington, and with other relatives at Brownfield, has returned to her home.

Mrs. Walter Hardy was called to Bridgton last week to attend the obsequies of her cousin, Harry W. Walker.

Wirt Eastman of Lancaster, Mass., was the recent guest of his mother, Mrs. E. L. Walker.

Bertha Charles has returned home from her work at Lovell Center.

Mrs. S. W. Stevens is away on an extended visit to her sister and other relatives at Somersworth, N. H.

Guy Eastman has purchased a small herd of Holstein cattle. Hutchins & Brock have a large herd of fine cattle.

Dean Ballard lost a fine 3-year-old steer by breaking its leg in the pasture at Jackson, N. H. It was one of a matched pair.

SUNDAY RIVER.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lahe spent the week-end in Upton with Mr. Lane's parents.

O. P. Littlehale's two sons, Tracey and Chester, who have been spending the summer months with him in this place, have returned to their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Nowlin are rejoicing over the birth of a baby girl. Mrs. C. D. Bean is caring for Mrs. Nowlin.

J. W. Reynolds, who is cutting birch for Mr. Gill, built a camp last week and moved Mrs. Reynolds and baby Roger in to the woods to spend the winter.

E. H. Ingalls of Portland, who has been visiting his sister, has returned home.

Dan Smith has been in this place repairing telephones.

Olson spent a few days at W. H. Powers', the first of the week.

John Olson of Portland has been visiting at C. D. Bean's.

NORTHWEST NORWAY.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Brown went to the Grange meeting at South Waterford, Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pierce went to Albany Sunday to visit her father and brother.

Carroll Delano from Bangor and Fred Knightley's son, William, from East Waterford are picking the apples on Sheller Nook Farm for Dr. Linwood Brown of Bethel and Dr. Maurice Brown of Dorchester, Mass.

Lewis Brooks, Henry Foster and Clarence Smith from Norway village were up to Cinnamon Camp last week, hunting.

THAT "TIRED FEELING"

is Often Unnatural.

An extra hard day's work may tire you. But if the close of every day finds you worn and weary—your system needs a TONIC.

"L. F." Atwood's Medicine taken daily, drives away that "tired feeling." It has helped New England folks earn the name of being "tireless workers," and Mrs. Brown's letter tells why it has become their favorite tonic.

West Farmington, Me.: "As my mother, Mrs. Smith, is writing in praise of your 'L. F.' Atwood's Medicine, I, too, would like to tell you that I think it one of the best household remedies. I consider it one of the best tonics on the market."

WEST FRYEBURG.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Boutwell during the fair were Benjamin Boutwell of Whitefield, N. H., and Mrs. S. W. Hill and daughter from Whitefield. Mr. Boutwell, though ninety years old attended the fair two days in succession returning to his home on Saturday.

Mrs. Sarah N. Stevens is spending a two weeks' vacation in Somersworth, N. H., the guest of her sister, Miss M. Rife. Mrs. Frank Stevens supervises household matters during the absence of her husband's mother.

E. W. Burbank, who has been for some weeks past at the Soldiers' home in Togus, has been heard from as improving.

Mr. and Mrs. David Hill, who are among our elderly residents, accepted the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stevens to a ride in their automobile on one of the incomparable days of this fall, starting about noon and making a drive to Center Conway through other sections with deliberation enough for safety and opportunity to take in the enchantment of this section of the country which has given to it the appellation of "Ultima Thule of tourists."

Return was made about 4 p. m. in time for evening chores, and in good spirits without weariness in any degree. Perhaps Mr. and Mrs. Stevens have read the adventures of the Golden Rule Dollivers, but if not they have emulated their kindness in sharing their good fortune with the less favored.

Mrs. Kate Hutchins for several years residing in this section, writes from Phoenix, Arizona, where she is visiting en route to Los Angeles, Cal., where she expects to make a stay of several months, as delighted with the country and describes the trip as wonderful. Mrs. Hutchins has a great partiality for her native town and environs and plans to spend some weeks every year in this neighborhood.

The brothers, Samuel and William Gordon, who celebrated the completion of their four score years of mortal life on Saturday, Oct. 10, began life at the ancestral home of the Gordon family in West Fryeburg, then not far from the mill, the buildings being destroyed by fire several years ago when owned and occupied by Joseph Page and family. Many residents retain a friendly sentiment for the members of the Gordon family living and those who have passed beyond the gates.

HARRISON.

Neilson Summer Residence.

The new summer residence of Alice Neilson of Boston, the famous opera and concert singer, which is now in the process of construction on Long Lake shore, near Harrison, is attracting much attention, as it is one of the most extensive and unique in this region.

It is very simple in style of architecture, having a wide veranda around the entire building. The unusually large living room, which has the appearance of a saloon, or concert hall, is open to the roof, with the exception of a balcony around the entire room, from which numerous sleeping rooms open, and from these, sleeping porches. There is a stone fireplace in the living room, and large plate glass windows on two sides, also wide doors in various places, opening on the veranda.

Everything in on a most extensive scale. The cottage is located in a grove of pines, the view being toward the head of the lake, and also the North Bridgton side.

Scribner Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Noble have returned from Monmouth where they have been working in the cornshop.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Scribner have been visiting in North Abington, Mass.

Dorothy Rankin of Hiram was the week-end guest of Georgia and Mary Scribner.

Georgia and Mary Scribner were presented with a nice piano recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Merrow and family attended the Fryeburg Fair, Oct. 7. They went with Luther Edwards in his auto.

Crooked River is very low. All are hoping for rain.

HARTFORD.

W. Scott Robinson, the sage of Hartford, a man who saw hard fighting in the Civil War, in writing of the present horror, calls it the war of the Mad Kings. Four kings, "who have deliberately conspired to slaughter a few millions of their people to divert their attention from hard conditions and despair for a few generations and dreams of liberty they might be having. For when it is over, there will be room enough on earth for all who survive, and work enough to keep them busy for many years, repairing damages and rebuilding the things destroyed."

Mrs. Charles H. Berry, Jr., delightfully entertained the members of her Sunday school class, Saturday afternoon. Those present were Velma Luce, Edna Penniman, Nellie Barrett, Julia, Ethel and Ida Bryant, Ira and Lillian Bryant, Rosetta Libby. Games were played.

Allie Merrill of Roxbury was in town, attending to the gathering of his apples.

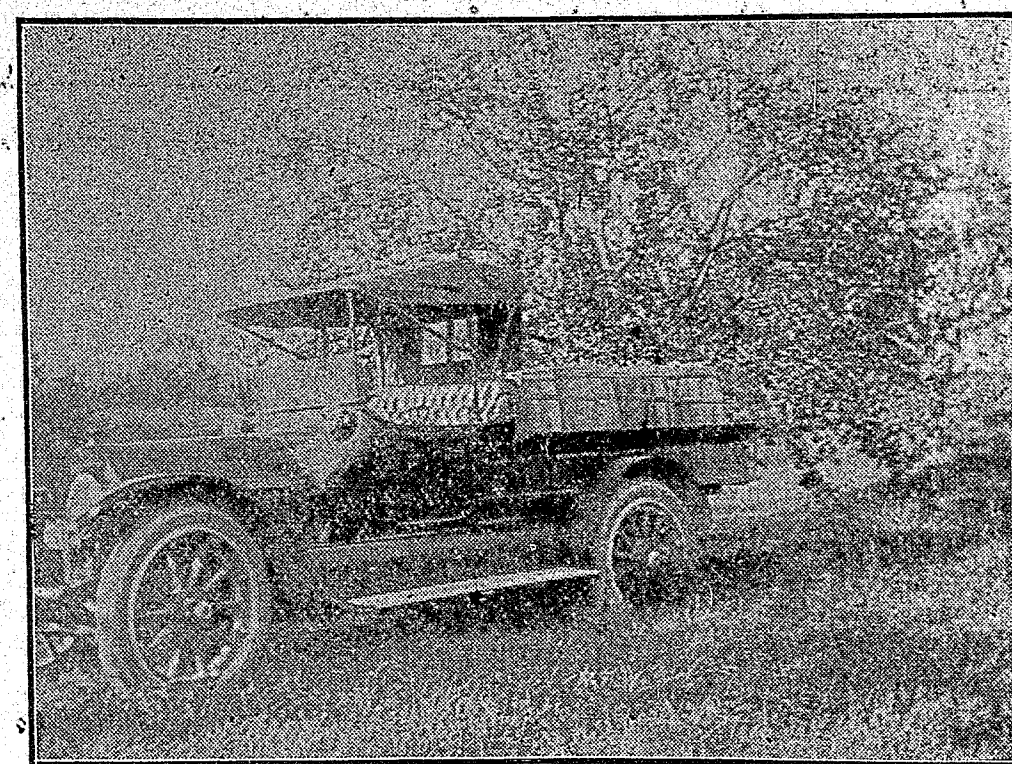

Mrs. Herbert Sampson, who recently underwent an operation for gall stones at the C. M. G. Hospital, is getting along nicely.

Mrs. Marion Howard spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. George Barrows, of East Sumner.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Varney of Turner were visitors at the home of Mrs. Varney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Berry, a few days later.

New postmasters:—Clifford Evans, East Hiram; Blanche A. Young, South Waterford; Walter M. Barnes, Andover; Frank G. Ham, Brownfield; Arthur L. Palmer, Lake Umbagog; Frank B. Coffin, Gilead; Caroline P. Harlow, Paris; Wilbur S. Crommett, Ridgville; John Reed, Roxbury; Roscoe F. Staples, Welchville.

If you kill a moose in the woods now you will go to jail; if you kill a man you will be fined $200, so be careful where you shoot in the Maine woods.

RUMFORD.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church served a harvest supper in the vestry, Tuesday evening, which was well attended.

Mrs. William Draper has returned home after a week's visit in Bennington, Vt., Holyoke and Springfield, Mass.

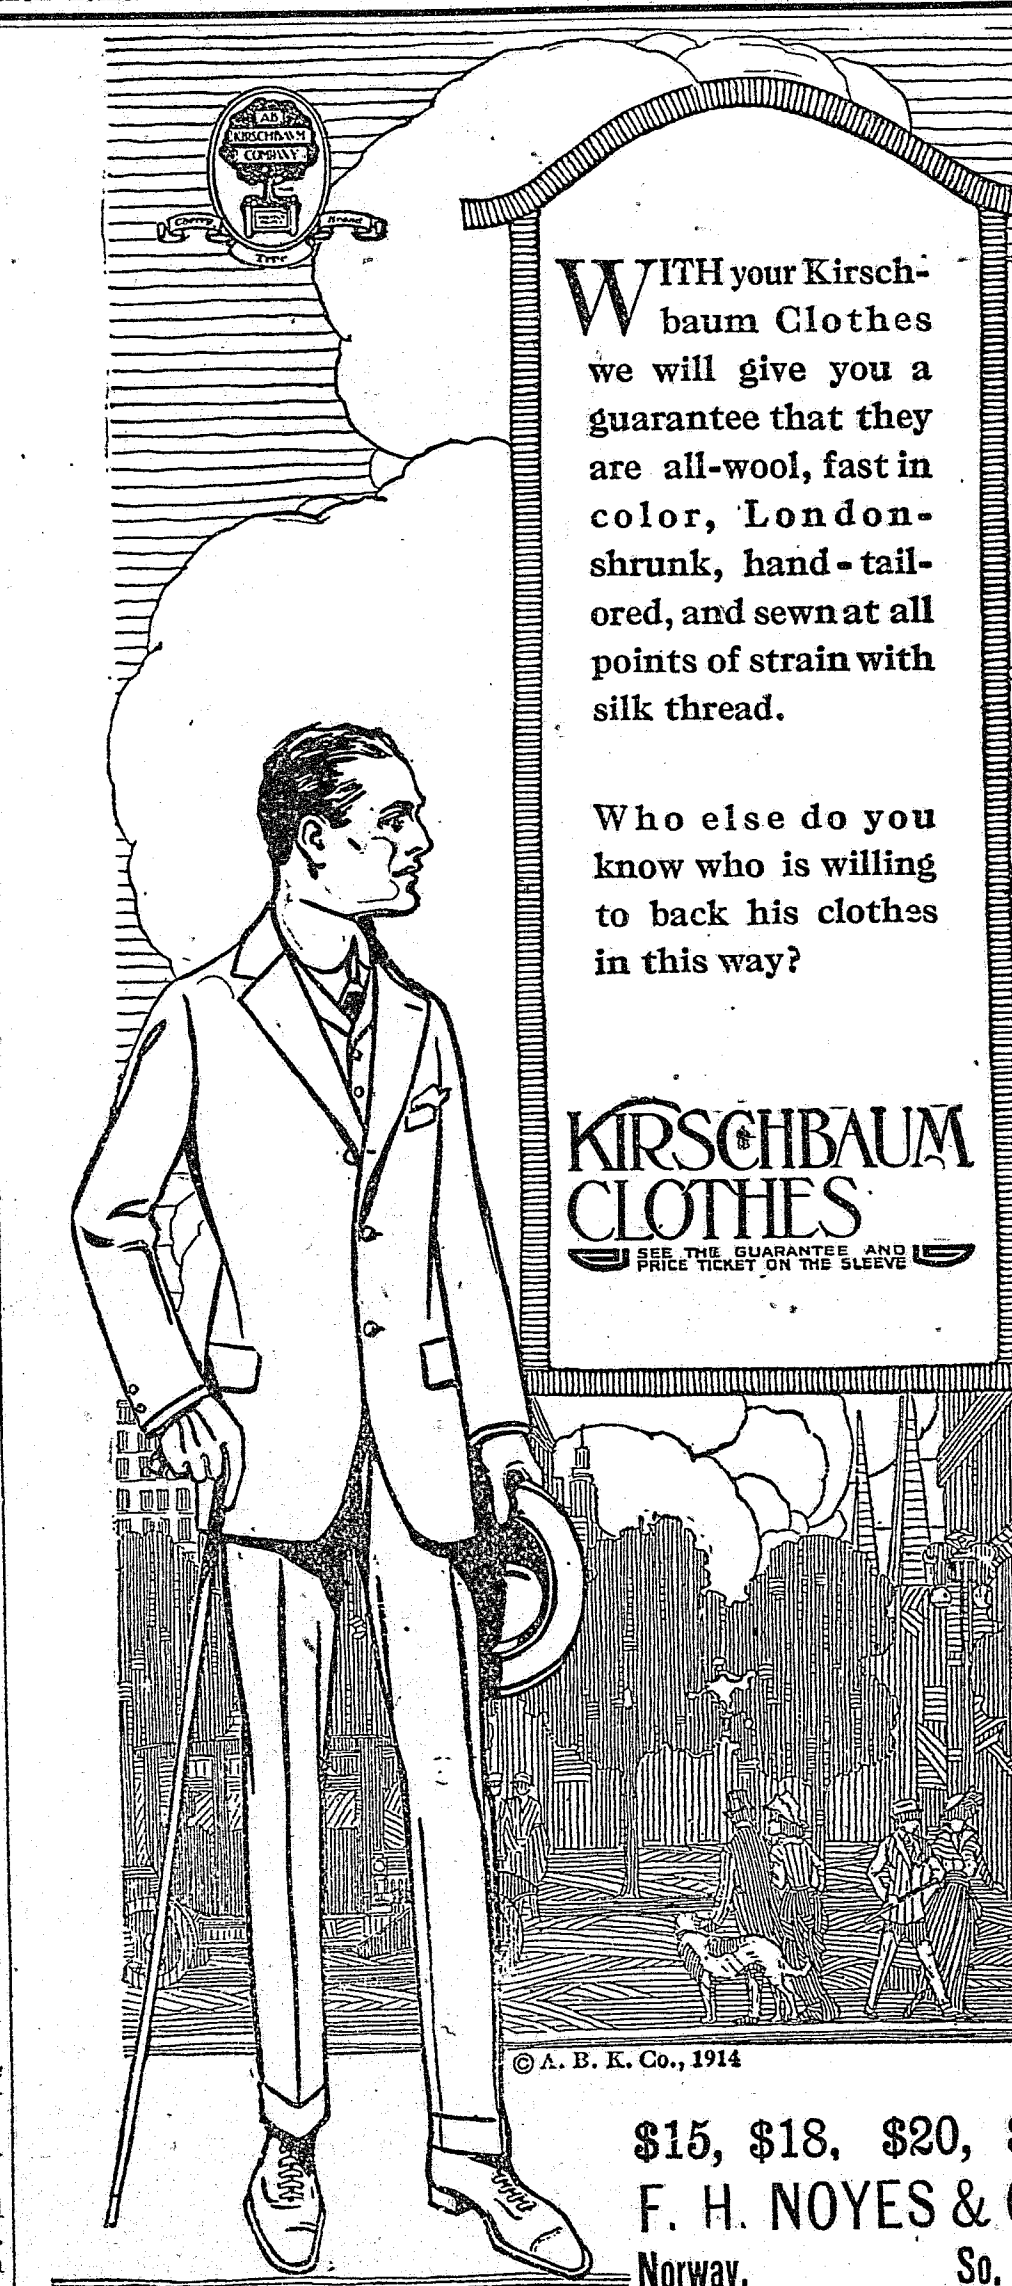

Mary Brown is working in the law office of A. E. Stearns.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. N. Allen have gone to Dade City, Fla., where they will make their home.

Tobacco Should be Smoked Up

As Soon as it's Cut Up

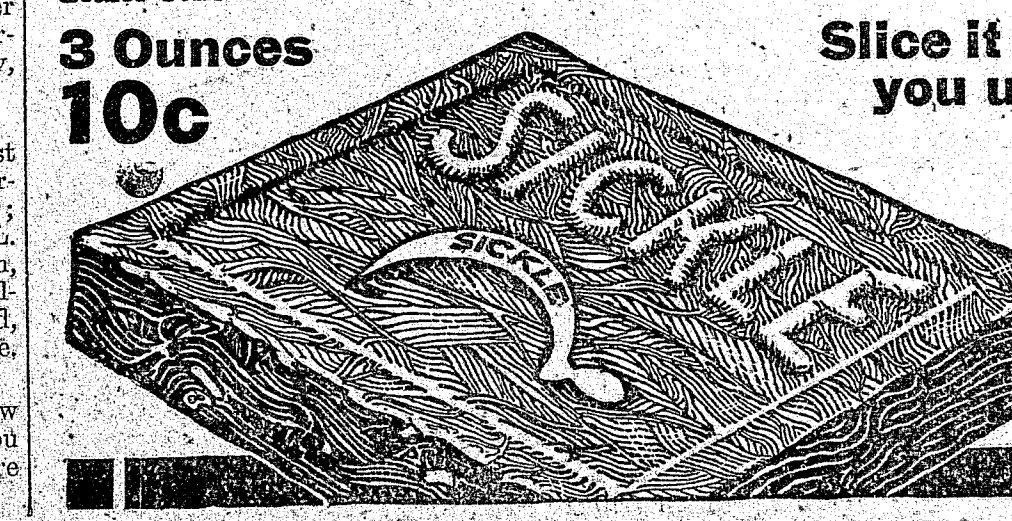

Then it is bound to be fresh—to smoke cool and sweet—because the natural moisture hasn't a chance to escape. That's the reason experienced smokers stick to the good old Sickle plug—slice off a fresh pipeful as they need it—and get all the original flavor and fragrance that have been pressed in the plug, and kept there by the natural leaf wrapper.

These smokers could save a minute's time by getting their tobacco already cut up—but they know it would also be dried up, would burn fast and bite their tongues.

You'll find solid satisfaction in smoking Sickle. And you'll get more tobacco, because there is no package to pay for. Your dealer sells Sickle.

For Your Money

We offer the protection of the "Oldest and Strongest National Bank in Oxford County" for safeguarding your money.

This Bank started business in 1872 at the time when this Country was recovering from the effects of the great Civil War.

By its clean and honorable record and its faithfulness to its depositors during those troublesome times and by its conduct through the panics of 1873, 1884, 1893 and 1907, it has clearly demonstrated its strength.

It points with pride to its 42 years of achievement as your best guarantee of its future conduct.

May we have the pleasure of counting you among our hundreds of other satisfied depositors?

KEZAR FALLS.

Annie Stewart.

Annie, daughter of George and Agnes Stewart, passed to the higher life on the evening of Oct. 7, in the twenty-fourth year of her age, after a distressing illness of seven months' duration.

Annie's was one of those characters of whom it can be truly said, "None knew her but to love her, or named her but to praise." She was a graduate of Porter High school and a post-graduate of North Parsonsfield Seminary, a member of the M. E. church, an Epworthian, and an efficient worker in the Daisy class of the Sunday school, a sweet singer in the choir of the church and the Kezar Falls Choral Union.

A week before she passed away she was carried, at her request, and supported upon the music stool, the while her slender fingers with loving and sympathetic touch, wandered among the keys of her loved piano.

Funeral services conducted by Rev. Cymbrid Hughes, were held at her home on the afternoon of Oct. 10th. Two beautiful selections were sung by the quartette, "Shadows," and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." Mr. Hughes spoke eloquently from lines of Shakespeare, "The Lord hath given and the Lord receiveth, Blessed be the name of the Lord." The bearers were Carlton Fox, Charles Fox, Carl Stacy and Archie Kelly.

There were many flowers; with their beauty and fragrance, bearing silent testimony to the love and sympathy of their donors.

Annie leaves a father, mother, one brother, the young man to whom she was affianced and many uncles, aunts and cousins to mourn their loss.

Interment was at Kezar Falls cemetery.

Mrs. William Babcock and children of Cambridge, Mass.; also Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. French and Mae Pierce of the same place, recently motored from that city and are calling on friends in this village (their former home) and vicinity. The Ladies' Circle met with Mrs. C. C. Page of late and enjoyed a pleasant and profitable session. The ladies with indefatigable zeal having finished paying for the furnishing of the parsonage, have now turned their attention to defraying the expense of the rostrum carpet and the recovery of the forty-eight pew cushions. Would you like to hear how each lady earned a dollar? Be present at their meetings, you have a standing invitation, and you may have that privilege, also of earning one on your own account.

Mrs. Gardiner Davis has returned from Farmington, where she has passed the week with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Orin Black entertained the L. M. R. C. and friends at their hospitable home Friday evening. A corn time harvest supper was among the attractions and the occasion was a very pleasurable one.

WEST BETHEL.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Morrill were visited by their daughters recently, Mrs. Harlan Bean, a little son from Auburn, Mrs. Cleve Bell and daughter from Oxford.

Mr. and Mrs. Frost (nee Blanche Kenner) and baby from Dixfield, a niece of Mrs. Morrill, recently visited her. J. Mather lost his nice big work horse, Saturday.

J. Haskell from Waterford has made some repairs on the Haskell house. John Bennett has moved into the house known as the Murphy house.

Mrs. Hattie Grover is in very poor health. John Murphy is getting ready to go to Dixfield to live with his sister, Mrs. Ellen Tyler.

Francis Mills spent a week at home, having finished his work at Rangely.

Mrs. W. D. Mills has been ill with a bad cold. Sunday visitors in this place were: Everett McKee from Bethel at W. A. Farwell's; Mrs. Alton Ames and baby from Locke's Mills at E. B. Mason's; Mrs. Grace Bartlett from Bethel at W. D. Mills'.

John Rollings and daughter Vivian from Lewiston visited the cemetery and placed flowers on their lot.

Mr. and Mrs. Dana Grover from West Paris have been at E. I. Grover's. The auto that was wrecked between here and Gilead has been bought and taken away.

SOUTH HARRISON.

Oldest Bridgton Academy Alumni, Mrs. Ruth Andrews Buck, a woman beloved by all who knew her, passed to the higher life, Oct. 5, at the home of her son, Adelbert Buck, in South Harrison.

She was born April 4, 1833, and was 91 years of age at the time of her death. Her husband, Henry L. Buck, to whom she was married in 1843, died 17 years ago at the age of 85 years. Of the 9 children, one died in infancy, 4 others, grown to manhood, having died in recent years.

The four surviving are: Judge Geo. H. Buck, Redwood City, Cal.; E. M. Buck, a retired business man of Boise City, Idaho; Mrs. George Greene, North Bridgton; and Adelbert Buck, South Harrison. There are twenty-one grandchildren, one Mrs. Whon, Mrs. Allen Clarke, resides in Bridgton, and a number of great grandchildren.

Mrs. Buck was a remarkable woman and had a wide circle of friends. She was a great letter writer and carried on an extensive correspondence. She was the oldest alumni of Bridgton Academy and after her graduation was a successful teacher. Her home was noted for its hospitality and many people have been entertained there.

Funeral services were held Thursday, Oct. 8th, Rev. A. A. Callaghan of Bridgton, officiating. Mrs. Buck having been a life long Methodist. Many relatives and friends were present, among them the widow of her nephew, Mrs. M. E. Ingalls and daughter, Mrs. W. T. Kilbourne and family from Portland, and others from Oxford, Norway and Bridgton.

EAST HEBRON.

On Tuesday evening, Oct. 13, there was a quiet wedding at the parsonage, when the following parties were happily united in marriage, Alton Keene of East Hebron and Lizzie Therrien of Buckfield, Rev. E. M. Swift, the officiating clergyman. After the usual greeting and intercession, made pleasant by a fine piano selection rendered by Arthur Swift, the bride and groom retired to their new home in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wilson (nee Helen Smith) of Portland have returned home from their honeymoon, passed in camp in Harlow.

Come See How Cars Have Changed

The new HUDSON Six-40—designed by Howard E. Coffin—will show you all the latest trends in cars.

One trend is toward modest size. Here it is, with ample room for seven.

Another is toward lightness. Here is a car that weighs 1,000 pounds less than the old-time average for cars of this size. Yet there never was a sturdier car.

Here is a new-type motor which lowers operative cost about 30 per cent.

NEW ATTRACTIONS

Here is the body style which best meets the artistic ideas of today.

Here are disappearing tonneau seats—invisible hinges. The gasoline tank is in the dash—extra tires are ahead of the front door.

A NEW PRICE

And here is a new price for a high-grade car. No quality car—either a Four or a Six—has ever been sold so low.

Even last year's price on the HUDSON Six-40 has been reduced $200 by this year's trebled output. Yet this year's model has 31 improvements.

This is today the finest example of the coming type of car. It will show you more advances than any other car in town.

See it while it's new.

Mi-o-na Quickly Ends Indigestion
Eat Your Favorite Food and Never Fear After-Distress.

There is a way for you to eat what ever your stomach craves and do it over again the next day. Many will say "How I wish I could but I have tried and every time it nearly kills me." The real trouble is that people who suffer the untold agony of indigestion, do not properly care for the stomach. Every stomach has a lot of work to perform in digesting the food and if crowded with extra labor it rebels and kicks up a fearful disturbance. Mi-o-na, a simple, harmless, inexpensive and most effective prescription, easily obtained at any drug store, will quickly stop this disturbance. Mi-o-na was especially prepared to regulate out-of-order stomachs. It not only helps the over-worked digestive organs by increasing the flow of gastric juices, but surely and safely builds up and strengthens the stomach walls so that the stomach can care for the food as nature intended. It's needless for you to suffer with indigestion, heartburn, biliousness, sour, gassy or upset stomach, for Mi-o-na should give prompt and lasting relief. Do not delay but get some of these health-restoring tablets from Noyes Drug Store today. If Mi-o-na does not banish all stomach distress, there will not be a penny of expense.

ASTHMA AND HAY FEVER A GUARANTEED TREATMENT

"I have arranged with Chas. H. He says: "Buy a 50-cent package of my Asthma-dor or Asthmador Cigarettes, try it, and if it does not afford you immediate relief, or if you do not find it the best remedy you have ever used, take it back to Chas. H. Howard & Co., and they will return your money, cheerfully and without any question whatever. After seeing the grateful relief it has afforded in hundreds of cases, which had been considered incurable, and which had been given up in despair, I know what it will do. I am so sure that it will do the same with others that I am not afraid to guarantee it will relieve instantaneously. The druggists handling Asthmador ly. You return your money if you say so. You are to be the sole judge and under this positive guarantee, absolutely no risk is run in buying Asthmador." Persons living elsewhere will be supplied under the same guarantee by their local druggist or direct by Dr. R. Schiffmann, St. Paul, Minn. Adv. 38-45

Recollection of Early Settlers Of Greenwood
By Prof. A. E. Verrill of Yale University.

The distant mountains of Bethel and Rumford are plainly to be seen. The nearer mountains, northward, are Uncle Tom, 1700 feet high; Long Mountain, 1700 feet; Overset Mountain, 1540 feet. Northwestward, at about the same distance, but in Albany, is the symmetrical peak called Hedgehog Mountain, in my youth, but Round Mountain on the maps. It is 1800 feet high. Lovejoy Mountain, on the west, is a much broader mountain, 1760 feet high, all heavily wooded, except on its precipitous southern side. Looking to the northeast, the higher and more distant mountains of Woodstock, Sumner, and Peru are clearly visible. Among them are the broad summits of Spruce Mountain in Woodstock, three of its peaks are 2300 to 2400 feet high; Mollyocket, 1900 feet high; and of Chamberlain Mountain, 2040 feet. Mt. Abram, in northern Greenwood, lies nearly north. It is 1940 feet high, with a sharp peak. All these mountains have been well rounded off by ancient glacial action, on their northern and northeastern sides and over their summits.

The soil of Greenwood is everywhere glacial drift, abounding in granite boulders of all sizes. These were made into stone-fences on all the farms, and more or less were taken from off the fields every year to make cultivation possible. The stone fences were often made four feet high and four feet or more wide, to get rid of the stones. Large oxen and strong plows were used in plowing. The original forest was dense and the trees were large. The stumps and roots of the large pine trees were torn up by powerful machines, worked by oxen, and built into unsightly, but effective, stump fences.

The top of Furlong Mountain, on Patch Mountain, as it was also called, is partly bare ledges, and partly covered with red spruce, etc. It is 1550 feet high, at the eastern peak, which is the more abrupt one. The rock is, in places, contorted gneiss, with massive intrusive granite, crossed with many veins of white quartz. Several mineral springs occur there; among them berg, smoky quartz, black garnet, green tourmaline, etc.

While in search of such minerals, I did a little blasting, near the top of the mountain, but on the southern side of the eastern peak, I think it was about 1858. My brother, B. D. Verrill, aided me in this. The southern side of its eastern peak is abrupt in places, as on many other mountains of this region, due to glacial action. The rocks are like those of Herriek or Noyes Mountain, opposite, where a valuable deposit of rare minerals was opened by George L. Noyes, of Norway, about twenty-five years ago. This region would make a splendid game preserve. Furlong pond, a short distance away, used to abound in fine trout, noted for their deep salmon-colored flesh.

Geo. W. Verrill was commonly called Captain Verrill by his neighbors, because he was Captain of the Greenwood militia for a number of years. "Training day" used to be a general holiday, on which all the farmers and their families gathered from miles around. The militia were furnished with gay uniforms, a powder-horn, a bullet-pouch, etc., and also carried a cartridge-box, containing home-made cartridges. I still have my father's powder-horn, but not his sword, though that was preserved in the family for many years. The cartridges were held in holes in a block of wood, encased in a leather case. The powder-horn had to be bitten off before putting the cartridge into the gun. All guns were then muzzle-loaders, and mostly flint-locks, and they had to "keep their powder dry" with care. I remember being present at several "training days" at Greenwood City when a small boy.

He was also one of the selectmen for a number of years, and one of the earliest to join the successive temperance organizations. Later he became a "conductor" on the "Underground Railroad" and secretly helped many a runaway slave along on his journey to Canada, before the war, in the days of the "Know Nothing" secret society. But that is another story.

My father sang in church choirs for many years, wherever he lived, regardless of denominations, sometimes in two very different ones in the same day. He had a bass voice, and was considered a good singer. Unfortunately none of his sons inherited this talent.

In the time when my father built houses and great barns, building was very different from the modern methods. Machinery was lacking, and so was skilled labor. Hinges and locks, etc., were often made by the local blacksmith, and sometimes also the nails.

In building houses the boards were all planned and matched by hand. The doors, sashes and mouldings were all made by hand, and the shingles on most of the old-hand, and the shingles on most of the old-hand, were split out and shaved by hand. Instead of laths, wide and thin hemlock boards were partially split, here and there, with a broad axe, and then "expanded," as they were nailed on, thus opening the cracks. The timbers of the frames, especially of the large barns and stables, were very large, and nearly always of good white-pine, hewed by hand, with broad axes. The entire frame was usually made while flat on the ground, each end and side frame being laid out separately, so as to come into position when raised up. The timbers were well mortised together, and stiffened with stout corner braces; securely fastened together with oak pins. When ready, the men and boys from all the surrounding farms, and often from distant ones, were invited to the "raising," and the gathering was often large, and it was made a lively affair, with much shouting and cheering, as each section of the frame was raised up and fastened to gether, long pick-poles being used to push up the heavy frames. The barns were usually far larger than the houses, to accommodate the large crops of hay and many cattle. On such occasions rum or hard cider was commonly dispersed to the crowd, but the more cautious farmers refused the drinks till the raising was finished. This often caused much complaining. The ladies usually supplied a substantial lunch after the "raising" was over, for many often came with their husbands.

EAT WHITE SATIN BREAD
The best BREAD made

It is the policy of the Paris Home Bakery to improve the quality of its products at all times where ever possible.

During the past week we have had G. C. Semler, professional demonstrating baker of the Fleishman Yeast Co., of New York, at our bake shop to improve the quality of our bread. It is the opinion of Mr. Semler that WHITE SATIN BREAD is the equal of any on the market.

It stands the test,
It is the best.

AUTUMN MODES

We cannot too strongly urge giving immediate attention to the selection of Autumn Apparel.

TO-DAY

When the ready-to-wear garments are especially attractive and recent arrivals of new modes complete and enhance the already remarkable display, the time is most opportune for choosing Suit, Coat, Gown, Blouse, etc.

The aim of this department is to offer styles which embody all the desirable fashion points, while at the same time eliminating extreme characteristic features.

SUITS of tailored style are particularly noted for their smartness of line—their quality of fabric and indescribable nicety of detail.

Broadcloth, Cheviot, Serge and Garbardine comprise these smart suits.

SEPARATE COATS

COATS that flare, are loose and semi-fitted are particularly popular and made in a variety of materials and modes for all occasions.

HINTS FOR COOL WEATHER

BED BLANKETS in various qualities, Priced from 69c to $7.00 per pair.

BED COMFORTABLES in a variety of qualities, Priced from 98c up.

FLEECE LINED AND WOOL HOSIERY of the best makes for the whole family.

Superior Judicial Court.

court that he had been bound over in Berlin for the same offense. He was allowed to go on his own recognizance. Ed. H. Peters, Rufford, on an old liquor nuisance indictment, was sentenced to pay a fine of $200 and costs, taxed at $10, and in addition to 3 months in jail. In the case of Edward McDonald of Portland, a young man indicted for breaking and entering and larceny, the breaking and entering was not pressed, and for the larceny he was sentenced to two months in jail, after an appeal in his behalf had been made by his counsel, Harry E. Nixon of Portland.

Victor L. Kneeland of Fryeburg pleaded guilty to the forgery of a check for $350. E. E. Hastings addressed the court in the young man's behalf, and the indictment was filed and he was allowed to go on his own recognizance.

Frank Potter of Dixfield pleaded not guilty to an indictment for assault. County Attorney Dyer said he was satisfied that the man was mentally irresponsible, and he was released with the understanding that he is to be cared for by the municipal officers of this town.

Frank J. Jancani of Rufford, for whom Mr. Bellevue was counsel, pleaded guilty to assault and battery on Deputy Sheriff Landry, and the case was placed on file. An appeal case against Jancani for fast driving on the toll bridge was not pressed on payment of $5 costs.

Joe Sabalonskie and Alex Sabalonskie of Rufford retraced their former pleas in complaints for intoxication and paid each a fine of $10 and costs of $10. An indictment against them for assault on Deputy Sheriff Landry was placed on file after they had pleaded guilty.

Harry C. Chase of Mexico charged with breaking into the garage of Clara Mitchell of Roxbury in the night, and took an automobile which he drove to Dover, N. H., where he was arrested. Judge A. E. Stearns spoke in Mr. Chase's behalf, and assured the court that as far as he could learn, the respondent had no intention of retaining the car in his own possession, but that he took it under what he considered an urgent demand that on account of family matters he should get into New Hampshire as soon as possible. Judge Haley imposed a sentence of not less than two years nor more than four years in state prison, with a recommendation of three years.

Homér Truman of Norway was arraigned as a common seller, and pleaded not guilty. He had no counsel, and assured the court that he could not be ready for immediate trial, as the witnesses whom he should want were not in town. Under the circumstances, it was decided that the case should be continued to the March term, and Truman was ordered to furnish bail in the sum of $300.

The last sentence to be imposed was upon Fred Warren of Canton, who had pleaded guilty to three indictments, for sodomy, assault with intent to commit sodomy, and having obscene literature and pictures in possession for circulation. A sentence was imposed of not less than two nor more than four years in state prison, with a recommendation of three years.

Two complaints for single sale against Condensie Basili were not pressed on payment of costs of $10 in each case. The case of Dermont H. Robbins for illegal speeding of automobile was not pressed on payment of $10 costs.

An appealed case against Fred DeCoster and an indictment for nuisance against the same man were not pressed on payment of $25 costs in each case.

In the cases against Lyman W. Smith of Canton, who did not appear, bail was ordered defaulted. This was cash bail put up by Mr. Smith to the amount of $3000, which will be turned over to the county treasury.

There was much interest shown in the Stetson divorce case which was brought to trial Friday afternoon. The case was not completed during the afternoon and was continued during the evening. Hon. Frank A. Morey of Lewiston was counsel for Rollin Stetson residing at Sumner, who claimed cruel and abusive treatment. Hon. James S. Wright was counsel for Mrs. Stetson who sued for $1500. The pleas were heard Friday evening and Court adjourned until Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. Decision of Court in favor of Mr. Stetson.

There were twenty-eight divorces granted as follows:

William M. Dyer from Mary M. Dyer, both of Gilead. Adultery.

Richard A. Walker of Paris from Lillian May Walker of Gardiner. Cruel and abusive treatment. Custody of minor child given to the father.

George R. Campbell of Dallas Plantation from Annie V. Campbell of Rufford. Desertion.

Frank B. Taylor of Bethel from Helen M. Taylor of Bethel, Mass. Desertion.

Lillian J. Kerr of Hebron from James R. Kerr of Paris. Unknown. Extreme cruelty.

Clara E. Lafabvre of Gilead from J. L. Lafabvre of Steelton, Ontario. Cruel and abusive treatment.

Laurie E. Chase from George Olin Chase, both of Paris. Cruel and abusive treatment.

Gertrude H. Hunnewell from Guy Hunnewell, both of Rufford. Cruel and abusive treatment.

Antero Bussolari from Sadie A. Bussolari, both of Rufford. Adultery.

Rollin N. Stetson from Ursula M. Stetson, both of Sumner. Cruel and abusive treatment.

Winnie F. Stearns of Paris from Orice Harvey Stearns of Portland. Cruel and abusive treatment.

Henry O. Wilbur of Bethel from Nellie R. Wilbur of Oxford. Desertion.

A Norway Industry.

As seen by a Journal reporter:—Over behind the counter between two windows may be found "Nash of Maine." Waldo to his neighbors, J. Waldo by christening, but just "Nash of Maine" from his taxidermist has gained national and international reputation as truly representative of the Pine Tree State and of his art.

"It is an art," said he, as the details of fish mounting as under way were informally discussed. "One ought to devote a lifetime to the mastery of a branch of taxonomy to be a real success, not scatter his fire over the various branches of the business."

Then he told how, in recent years he had been able to turn over the bird mounting wholly to Mrs. Nash, who has gained an enviable reputation in this line, so that he, himself, had been able to spend all his labor on the fish mounting and kindred work.

In his hands was the skin of a square tailed trout from our Maine lakes, a beauty to make "green with envy" any lover of the rod and reel. His task at the moment was to fit this carefully to the model prepared for it.

"Do you see," said he, "is our picking tank," and he pointed to a big case in one corner of the room where in several compartments were scores of fish skins being preserved in brine. From this tank he had just taken this specimen for mounting.

"Do you make your own models?" was asked, as the array upon the shelf was being glanced over, each shaped carefully into the resemblance of a fish and the wood painted white.

"They are made right here," was his reply, "for the success of the work lies largely with correct models." Then Mr. Nash explained how sportsmen usually outline on paper, with a knife, the contour of the fish from which the skin and head are stripped and sent to him for mounting. From this paper outline and the skin he constructs the model. "The ideal method," however," he explained, "is to have the fish sent directly to us as it is caught from the lake, as we then know just how it looks and are sure our outline will be unhurried and exact."

But the Maine sportsmen are very skillful in their outlines and we have a little cause for complaint with their drafts," he explained, "is the special white painted wooden model, fashioned for it that each fish skin is attached. First the tail is fitted and then the skin drawn as tightly over the "body" and smoothed down until not a wrinkle is left. The least air bubble is picked and the skin is drawn as tightly as it ever fitted its own flesh before the model is reversed and the edges on the under side are tacked down. Now and then a bit of putty is added to the model to make the skin a perfect fit. Then the head is put in place, the "eye" socket is gouged out of the wood and final fitting is finished.

The decorating of the skin by touching up the color tints is no small feature of the work, after which comes the final application of varnishes, the secret of which is not divulged.

Thus in the finished product, one has a work of art on a nature-basis the peculiar delight of which is that the owner gains permanent possession of the actual trophy of his skill. For the fish-skins, thus mounted and set in relief upon plaques form highly decorative wall-pieces for the dining room or den.

No small amount of skill is needed for the various details of the work, and even an exact knowledge of the various types of fish which and their way here to the shop for mounting. In this state there are six distinct types and Mr. Nash frequently receives fish from other states and from Canada with the character of which he has to acquaint himself.

Asked about his birds, for it is generally known that Mr. Nash has one of the finest private collections in the state, he said that all these were packed away and not easily accessible. The whole collection includes some 3,000 specimens.

This work was largely the result of eight years' study of birds in the White Mountain region under a special permit obtained from the government. His contribution to the list for Maine was 168 accepted specimens, besides 22 others which were in doubt at the time and were left out but which since have been seen by experts and accredited.

In this connection, Mr. Nash expressed his regret that the Boardman collection was ever permitted to leave Maine. This included Boardman's accepted list of 248 birds for Washington county which was his valuable donation to the Maine birds, the collection having been bought by New Brunswick authorities a few years ago.

Among the rare birds in Mr. Nash's list was the black buzzard or vulture from the south, the specimen found by Mr. Nash and being now in the collection of George R. Howe, the Norway naturalist.

"MADE IN AMERICA"

Now is the Time!
 You know the European war has temporarily stopped the flow of foreign goods to this shore. Now is the time to learn to use "Made in America" articles.

You don't have to buy anything made outside of the United States. This country produces what you want—or it soon will.

When you buy at home you keep your money at home and not in the coffers of the European markets.

A NURSE TAKES DOCTOR'S ADVICE

And is Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Euphemia, Ohio:—"Because of total ignorance of how to care for myself when verging into womanhood, and from taking cold when going to school, I suffered from a displacement, and each month I had severe pains and nausea which always meant a lay-off from work for two to four days from the time I was 16 years old.

"I went to Kansas to live with my sister and while there a doctor told me of the Pinkham remedy but I did not use them then as my faith in patent medicines was limited. After my sister died I came home to Ohio to live and that has been my home for the last 18 years.

"The Change of Life came when I was 47 years old and about this time I saw my physical condition plainly described by one of your advertisements. Then I began using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I cannot tell you or any one the relief it gave me in the first three months. It put me right where I need not lay off every month and during the last 18 years I have not paid out two dollars to a doctor, and have been blessed with excellent health for a woman of my age and I can thank Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for it.

"Since the Change of Life is over I have been a maternity nurse and being wholly self-supporting I cannot overestimate the value of good health. I have never earned a comfortable little home just by sewing and nursing. I have recommended the Compound to many with good results, as it is excellent to take before and after childbirth."—Miss EVELYN ADELIA STEWART, Euphemia, Ohio.

Diseases of Children

I find that worms is one of the most common of children's diseases—either pinworms or stomach worms.

These parasites attack the stomach and bowels and make their presence felt through deranged stomach, swollen upper lip, sour stomach, flat belly, breath, hard and full belly, pale face of leadish tint, eyes, little red points sticking out on tongue, starting during sleep, slow fever.

For over 60 years, Dr. True's Elixir, my father's discovery has been the standard remedy for worms and stomach disorders. Take no chances, but use the time-tried remedy—Dr. True's Elixir, the Family Laxative and Worm Expeller. At all dealers, 35c, 50c and $1.00. Advice free. Write, 43

Suffered Twenty-One Years--

Finally Found Relief
 Having suffered for twenty-one years with a pain in my side, I finally have found relief in Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. I had been taking various other remedies for short periods of time. I became so sick that I had to undergo a surgical operation in New Orleans, which benefited me for two years. When the same pain came back one day I was so sick that I gave up hopes of living. A friend advised me to try your Swamp-Root and I at once commenced using it. The first bottle did me so much good that I purchased two more bottles. I am now on

The organ in the First Congregational church has just been tuned by Chas. Chesney of Portland.

While returning from the husking at O. W. Osgood's at about 12 p. m., the steering gear of Perley Brown's car refused to work and the car left the road which at this point is built up about four feet, the descent being abrupt. The car was completely overturned. Of the five occupants, George O. Warren was thrown clear of the car, landing on his feet, Mr. Brown, Mrs. Warren, Mrs. E. D. Hastings and Alice Glines were pinned under the car. Mr. Brown succeeded in extricating himself and he and Mr. Warren were able to raise one side of the car sufficiently for the others to crawl out. The unusual part of it is that no one was at all injured although Mr. Brown is somewhat lame. The accident occurred near Clarence Osgood's and the party completed the trip on foot. One rear wheel of the car was demolished, the wind shield broken and the lamps twisted. The fact that the car was being driven very slowly and that Mr. Brown shut off the power at the first sign of trouble prevented more serious results.

Mr. and Mrs. Eben Fox of Portland, who have been among the recent guests of their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Fox, have returned to their home.

WATERFORD.

Abbie Kimball Monroe. Abbie Kimball, born at Rumford Point, March 11, 1925. Her girlhood was spent in that vicinity until she attained to high school age when she attended Bridgton Academy and also the Seminary at Kents Hill.

After completing her academy studies she taught school in South Waterford. When about 20 years of age she married Charles W. Monroe, a native of Waterford. Their married life was spent in Boston and Cambridge, Mass., in which places Mr. Monroe was engaged in the bakery business until 20 years ago when he passed away.

Three children were born to them, all of whom survive; Charles, Judge of the Supreme court of Los Angeles, Cal.; Mrs. Nancy Monroe Flagg of Cambridge, Mass.; Herbert, chief train dispatcher at the Atchison & Santa Fe road at San Bernardino, Cal.

Mrs. Monroe was a member of the Epworth Methodist church of Cambridge, Mass., in which she was, until incapacitated by advancing years, an earnest worker. In this church she gathered one of the largest classes of "Northern Jewels" in that part of the State and was known among the children as "Mother's Jewels" woman. For many years she conducted a very successful class of boys in the Sunday School.

She was ever an ardent promoter of the missionary interest of her denomination and was an enthusiastic worker in the W. C. T. U.

She passed away at the Lake House, Waterford, where for several winters she had made her home, Saturday, Oct. 17, Mrs. Flagg and daughter Alice coming from Cambridge, Mass. to be with her at the last.

Funeral services were held at the Lake House, Monday, Rev. G. W. Sias officiating. Mrs. Nellie U. Stone sang, Rock of Ages, and Abide with Me.

The remains were taken to Rumford, Tuesday for interment.

Received $1,000 by Will. The annual meeting of the Waterford Library Association was held in the Knight Library last Thursday afternoon. The following officers were elected:

Pres.—Mrs. Ella R. Millett.
V. Pres.—Carrie L. Plummer.
Sec.—Mrs. F. B. Rounds.
Treas.—Mrs. F. B. Rounds.

Librarian—Mrs. F. B. Rounds.
The Doris Richmond and Irene Perkins are among those suffering from this disease.

Wilfred Perkins took a Poland party to the Mountains, Thursday.

Ralph Edwards and family have returned to Dixfield.

The ladies of the Congregational church held a sale in the Chapel, Friday evening.

Mr. Wills, who bought the Knights place recently, is preparing to paint the buildings. He has put new windows in the stable and made other improvements.

A. L. Clark of Bolster's Mills was in town, Saturday.

Mrs. George Wait of Mechanic Falls is in town for a few days.

Dr. E. B. Holden is spending the month of October in the Middle West.

Alberta Farris is taking music lessons of Daisy Chase of Norway. Miss Chase has a number of pupils in the village.

Henry Coy and daughter Mary went to South Harrison last week to the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Ruth Buck.

Corns Quit, Pains Stop, With "Gets-It"

Quit Plasters, Salves and What-Nots. After using "GETS-IT" once you will never again have occasion for asking, "What can I do to get rid of my corns?" "GETS-IT" is the first, sure, certain corn-ender ever known.

Why "Suffer-Yet" Use "GETS-IT"? They'll Vanish!

If you have tried other things by the score and will now try "GETS-IT" you will realize this glorious fact. You probably are tired sticking on tape that won't stay stuck, plasters that shift themselves right onto your corn, contraptions that make a bubble of your toe and press right down on the corn. Put two drops of "GETS-IT" on that corn in two seconds. The corn is then doomed as sure as night follows day. The corn shrivels. There's no pain, no fuss. If you think this sounds too good to be true try it tonight on any corn, callus, wart or bunion.

"GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

Field Sports.

When you keep a boy interested in football, baseball, tennis, and the like, you lessen the chances that he will get interested in things not so good for him.

The Youth's Companion, since its enlargement, gives generous space to this matter of athletic training, and gets the best coaches in the country to write for it.

How to practice to become a first-rate pitcher, how to train for a race, how to learn the newest strokes in swimming—these and a hundred other topics of the greatest interest to paper's readers, for that matter—are touched upon in this important department of The Companion.

And this is only a small part of the service which The Companion renders in any home which it enters. It has points of contact with a hundred interests.

If you do not know The Companion as it is to-day, let us send you one or two current issues free that you may thoroughly test the paper's quality. We will send also the Forecast for 1915.

Every new subscriber who sends $2.00 for the fifty-two weekly issues of 1915 will receive free all the issues of the paper for the remaining weeks of 1914; also The Companion Home Calendar for 1915.

DOWEL TURNERS WANTED

An Opportunity for Household Economy

The great advance in price of cream of tartar—which is derived from grapes—due to inability to care for and market the grape crop in the European countries now at war, can be made advantageous to the housewives of New England.

Housekeepers will find it more economical and much more satisfactory to use Royal Baking Powder, which is made from highly refined, pure cream of tartar. First, because the price of Royal has not been changed and it will do perfect work; second, because food made with Royal Baking Powder will be finer and more palatable; and finally, because it insures the absence of all danger from alum or similar unwholesome products.

The old-fashioned custom of buying cream of tartar and mixing it with soda, or using sour milk, may be discarded with profit. The high cost and scarcity of cream of tartar furnishes a temptation to unscrupulous dealers to substitute an adulterated product, which may be either lime phosphates or alum, that will change the baking strength and may spoil the food.

SHIRLEY SYSTEM—SIX STORES

SOUTH ALBANY.

Henry Dean of West Paris recently visited his uncle, Merritt Sawin, Mrs. Dean and two children, Minola and Glenn, were stopping with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Millett, at Waterford for a few days. They returned to their home in West Paris, Sunday.

We have been favored with a little rain for which all are devoutly thankful, and need a good deal more. Many wells and springs are nearly dry and a good many people are obliged to haul water some distance to use, and for drinking water.

Emma McAllister of Turner has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will McAllister, for some time. Mr. and Mrs. George Stevens of Turner came after her the last of the week and took her home with them. Miss McAllister has been at work for Mrs. Stevens for four years.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Healy have been visiting their children here for several days.

Mrs. Isaac Flint observed her birthday Oct. 1st, and friends sent her a post card shower. Ninety cards were received by her and as she is invalid and confined to the house all the time, the cards with the words of love and friendship will afford her many happy hours which otherwise might be long and dull.

Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Dean and daughter Myrtle of West Paris visited at Merritt Sawin's and took in the World's Fair. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Millett and children were also at the same place.

Hazel Savin has finished work for Mrs. Irving Greene and is at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Brown of East Stoneham spent last week with their daughter, Mrs. John McAllister. They returned to their home, Saturday.

J. F. Lord and Mrs. Fannie Kimball and daughter, Blanche of Durham recently visited their home here.

Mrs. Ralph Penfold and daughter Mae of Portland spent a few days here among relatives and friends.

Tena McAllister is at work for Mrs. Walter Lord.

Merritt Sawin has sold a cow and calf to Bert Weston of Bolster's Mills.

Will McAllister is at work on the auto mobile road near the Stoneham line.

George Abbott visited his sister, Mrs. Calista Swett, at South Waterford, last week for a few days. Mr. Abbott has been at work for Merritt Sawin, picking apples.

The school here was not in session last week Wednesday as the teacher, Mrs. Winifred Knight, attended the wedding of Marion Coolidge at South Waterford.

Mrs. Ethel Lovejoy and daughter of South Waterford and Mrs. Lola McAllister and son visited at Will McAllister's, last week, Tuesday.

Mrs. Ernest Paine and daughter Pauline visited her friend, Hazel Savin, one day last week.

Irving Becker, superintendent of schools, was through here recently, with school supplies.

News received from Mrs. James Gage (nee Mollie B. Weiner) of Massachusetts, that she is the proud possessor of a baby girl named Judith, Phoebe Gage, born Oct. 11th.

WATERFORD.

Plummer Hill.

John Mason and son Luther were weekend guests at Cyrus Green's.

Albert Horr of Lowell, Mass., is visiting at Herbert Whitcomb's.

Carrie Gardner, who has been visiting at L. Millett's, returned home last week.

Mrs. Cyrus Green and daughter, Leah Day went to Locke's Mills, Sunday, to visit Mrs. Green's brother and family.

Aunt Louise Rand, who has been visiting at Addison Millett's of late, is now visiting her nephew, George Rice, and family.

Henry Dean, wife and children of West Paris, visited her mother from Friday until Sunday of the past week.

Mary Millett is labeling corn at the South Waterford corn shop.

Urban Tyler and wife are visiting Mr. Tyler's parents at Cumberland Mills for a week or ten days.

WEST PARIS.

Last Thursday evening at Good Will Hall a very laughable farce entitled "Packing a Missionary Barrel" was presented under the auspices of the Y. P. C. U., with the following cast of characters:

Mrs. Green, the boss... Mrs. Leona Riddon
Mrs. White, a helper... Mrs. Bertha Dunham
Mrs. Jones, the invalid... Mrs. Mary Stetson
Mrs. Dimples, short and stout... Diana Wall
Mrs. Film, snoring spinster...
Sophie, Polish girl... Mrs. Maud Mann
Mrs. Marks, a helper... Mrs. Nellie Bacon
Mrs. Lamb, a lone widow... Mrs. Thacker
Mrs. Hicks, strong minded...
Mrs. Brown, the hostess... Mrs. Elmer Mann

A small but appreciative audience enjoyed the entertainment. They also had an animated street song directed by Alice E. Barden, which consisted of nine voices as follows: Miss Wall, Miss Burnham, Miss Chandler, Miss Parker, Mrs. Ball, Mrs. Chase, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Bacon and Mrs. Stetson. Other specialties were two vocal solos and a solo by Alice E. Barden. Homemade candy was also on sale.

Mrs. Henry Cummings of Auburn spent Saturday and Sunday with her aunt and uncle, Dr. and Mrs. O. K. Yates, and sister, Mrs. Daniel.

W. W. Gardner is spending a two weeks' vacation in Chicago, Ill., and other places. Mr. O'Brien of Percy, N. H., is supplying for him.

Mrs. H. B. Dunham has been quite sick with bronchial pneumonia, but is now convalescing.

Mrs. H. H. Wardwell has been quite sick and has a nurse, Mrs. Georgia Tucker of Norway, also Mrs. McKay for general housework. A little son was born into the Wardwell home last week, Wednesday, but lived only a few hours.

D. A. Ball offered prayed at the house and the remains were taken by its relatives to Buckfield for interment.

Elva Brock has been visiting for a week in Bolster's Mills.

The weekly cottage prayer meetings held by Rev. H. C. Young in the Trap Corner Neighborhood, still continue. This week the meeting will be held in the home of Nathan Brock on Friday evening.

These meetings have been the source of considerable pleasure and profit to this neighborhood situated a mile away from the church, a large number of whom would otherwise be deprived of prayer meeting privileges.

Mike Carbine visited last week with his brother-in-law, Ex-Mayor William P. Conner and family in Lynn and took in the World Series Base Ball games in Boston.

He also visited other places and had a grand good time but was glad to get back here where there are not so many people.

Robert Shaw and Lester Penley attended the World Series Base Ball games in Boston.

West Paris Grange is invited to visit the Norway Grange in an all day meeting next Saturday. It is their 40th anniversary. It is the day for the regular meeting here but probably it will be put over.

This Grange also invited the South Paris Grange to visit them on the Saturday following, Oct. 24.

Mrs. J. H. Millett of Millettville, Norway has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harry Patch, and family.
